YGL ELECTION DAY – 25 & 26 AUGUST

YGL champions leadership among young government employees and what better way to encourage leadership development than to offer exciting leadership opportunities within our organization itself!

We are holding elections for our Executive Board this week. If you haven't applied, it's not too late! Position descriptions and an application are at the end of this newsletter. Every position is necessary for us to fulfill our mission. In return, you will have the opportunity to take initiative, develop your leadership skills, show off your creativity, and work with a talented group of government employees who are committed to public service and improving government.

Apply today! Send applications or request more information through younggovernmentleaders@gmail.com.

ABOUT YOUNG GOVERNMENT LEADERS (YGL)

YGL was founded in 2003 by a handful of young federal employees interested in connecting with their peers. Today, YGL is a recognized non-profit with more than 1800 members in more than 30 agencies and six chapters throughout the government and the country.

YGL's mission is to educate and inspire young leaders to transform government and make it one of the top employment choices for future generations. For its members, YGL provides professional development, networking, and leadership opportunities.

To join YGL, email YGL at younggovernmentleaders@gmail.com.

APPLICATION FOR EXECUTIVE BOARD POSITIONS BELOW!

YGL Executive Board Application

Application Instructions

Please submit completed application to admin@younggovernmentleaders.org by Aug 23rd, 2009. You may apply for more than one position, but please submit separation applications for each position.

The YGL Board will review applications and vote on top candidates by August 25st.
